Nominations invited for the Sunshine Coast Accessible Business Awards

Each year Sunshine Coast Access Advisory Network promotes inclusion in the community by running the Accessible Business Awards. This year the presentation will be held at their Housing for Life and accessible finance on Friday July 15th 2016

<http://www.scaan.org.au/>

Nominations are sought from the public who have found a business in our region easy to access for those with mobility issues or vision impairment and accepting in their service. Going to extra lengths to include people with all disabilities including Intellectual and non-verbal, in their business. Whatever that business may be.

Do you know of a restaurant or hardware shop that goes out of its way to be inclusive?

Then please nominate them for this year's awards.....Nominations must be received by June 24th 2016
